

ROOSEVELT HATRED
BACK OF HER WOES,
MISS COUZINS SAYS

Declares She Was Persecuted by Former President and Ambassador Bryce.

Attributing her present penniless condition to secret persecutions of former President Roosevelt and friends of Ambassador Bryce, Miss Phoebe Cousins, in her day one of the leading women lawyers in the United States, today declared that when she files suit against the United States Brewers' Association for a continuance of her annuity, facts will be brought to light which will startle the nation.

Miss Cousins this morning made public for the first time, the details of squabble which arose several years ago when the estate of Lord Nelson was sent by the British government to Annapolis, and informally unveiled by Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Bryce.

Remained Silent.
According to the former suffragette leader, who is now in a downtown Washington hotel awaiting for her "ship to come home," she says, had she remained silent regarding the status episode, she never would have experienced the difficulties which beset her today.

She told of her differences with President Roosevelt as follows:
"Quietly and unostentatiously the British government sent to the United States a statue of Lord Nelson, the hero of Trafalgar, and this was placed at the United States Naval Academy. Ambassador Bryce, on its arrival, quietly invited Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the President of the United States, to accompany his wife to Annapolis and assist at the unveiling. She accepted. The two women drew the strings which held an American flag and an English flag together and covered the figure, and thus exposed it.

Calls It Outrage.
"It was an outrage. Nelson was the naval man who defeated the French at Trafalgar. The French were our friends during the Revolutionary war. Had the French army not assisted us, America probably would not have gained her independence.

"Yet, in the face of this, the wife of a President of the United States assisted in doing honor to Lord Nelson.
"I wrote a letter to President Roosevelt telling him just what I thought about such a course. I was told by a man who made it emphatic to me that he did not represent the President, that my letter had infuriated the latter, and that President Roosevelt never would forget it.

"I have seen his cunning, and that of Ambassador Bryce, displayed repeatedly for the last few years. I am growing old and am unable to put up the fight I once could. They are not afraid to go after me now, and they are doing it."

To Dedicate Chapel.

Rev. Alfred Harding, bishop of the Washington diocese, will present this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the dedication services of the All Souls' Episcopal Chapel, Connecticut and Cathedral avenues, and will make the principal address. Rev. Dr. J. M. Sterrett, the pastor, will deliver a short sermon. Other addresses will be made. The new chapel will seat between 100 and 200 persons.

SLEMAN MEMORIAL IS TO BE ERECTED ON SITE NEAR Y. M. C. A.

Plans to Be Discussed at Great Public Mass Meeting November 8.

A memorial to John B. Sleman, Jr., churchman and philanthropist, will be erected on a site adjoining the Y. M. C. A. building, in G street northwest, if the plans now under way are carried out.

The Everett building, one of the famous old Washington mansions, has been purchased at a price said to have exceeded $50,000, and will be held for a year or two before it is made use of.

Detailed plans for the memorial will be discussed at a mass meeting of the citizens of Washington to be held at the New Willard, November 8.

This afternoon, at Chicago, before the National Convention of the Congregational Brotherhood of America, Secretary William Knowles C. Cooper, of the Washington Y. M. C. A., will deliver a eulogy on Mr. Sleman. At the great public mass meeting at the New Willard all the societies with which the former Washingtonian was identified will take part.

Mt. Rainier Citizen Is Out Under Bond

Released on $500 bonds for his reappearance in the court at Uper Mariposa early this week. Theodore F. Schultz, one of Mt. Rainier's most prominent citizens, who was arrested Thursday, will put up a hard fight against the charges of Helen Sanford, who alleges assault and battery. The original charge against Schultz was of a more serious nature. This, however, was withdrawn, and Thursday the assault and battery charge was made upon which Schultz was arrested.

Judge Beall hopes to have the case come up for trial during the early part of this week.

Honor Graduates Must Take Army Examinations

No longer will the honor graduates of the ten military schools of the country be given commissions in the army without an examination. This is announced at the War Department today. These graduates must in the future take the examinations as if they were an enlisted man, or any other.

Heretofore, the honor men submitted their diplomas, which were regarded as evidence of qualification by the War Department.

Two Held on Charge of Breaking Insurance Law

Charges of violation of the insurance laws have been filed against A. J. Wiegman and William Rice, in District branch of Police Court. Wiegman is charged with paying commissions on insurance policies in the Baltimore Life Insurance Company to Rice, an agent, who is not licensed in the District. Rice is charged with transacting an insurance business without procuring a license.

The two men were released under their personal bonds for a hearing on October 25. The insurance inspectors of the District are the complaining witnesses in the cases.

MRS. LELIA WALSON,
BANKER'S WIFE, DIES
AT ANACOSTIA HOME

Was Active in Church Work in Suburb of Capital.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ANACOSTIA, D. C., OCT. 15.—Mrs. Lelia Walson, the wife of George O. Walson, cashier of the National Metropolitan Bank, and president of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, died last evening about 6:30 o'clock at her home, 155 Maple View avenue. She had been ill for a long time. She was associated actively with the work of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, and was the honorary president of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church, her illness preventing her from filling the office of the active president.

Mrs. Walson was formerly Miss Lelia Herndon of Fredericksburg, Va. She is survived by her husband and two children, Veryl and Charles, the former being a school at Petersburg, Va. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

The Missionary Society of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church has chosen Mrs. Samuel R. Campbell, Mrs. William Marshall, and Mrs. A. B. Sutt as its representatives at the annual conference of the Women's Home Missionary Society in Baltimore, Md., on October 31 and November 1. Mrs. Campbell, in addition to being a delegate from the local society, has been chosen to respond, on behalf of the churches in the Washington district, to the greetings extended from the Baltimore hostesses.

Maurice Otterback, who recently bought the new brick dwelling at 1327 Valley place, has bought the house at 1339, immediately adjoining. He will hold the property as an investment. He has sold to Odie H. Fowler the dwelling at 1903 Seventeenth street.

The Women's Mission, which has been in progress during the past week at St. Teresa's Church, will close this afternoon. Mrs. Campbell, at 7:30 o'clock, there will be opened the men's mission, which will continue for the next week.

Much annoyance has been experienced for the last several weeks from the failure of the street lamps to afford the usual amount of light, due to the condition of the gas. The gas company has been receiving many complaints about this matter. Investigators from the company are trying to remedy the conditions.

Pietro Maiso, an Italian huckster, of 122 School's alley, left $2 at No. 11 station last night after being taken into custody by Policemen C. R. Brown because he had no light on his wagon.

A disabled electric car on the north-bound track, at the pit near the Anacostia bridge, caused a tie-up on that line yesterday. The cars coming from the city were unable to return, and, after a long delay, they were switched over to the south-bound at 7:30 o'clock, finally, they were sent back to town they met cars coming from the city on the same track. This caused a block-up. Passengers coming from the city were compelled to leave the cars on the north side of the bridge and walk to Anacostia.

To Willard White Co.
Dear Sirs—Wish to add my praise to your wonderful Melorose Powder, Rouge, and tinted Melorose Beauty Cream; it is well named.

Perfection MELOROSE Face Powder

The perfection of toilet dainties. One of the very few powders that are not harmful to the skin. Melorose improves the complexion and protects the skin from heat, cold, wind, dust, etc., as would a fine veil, particularly when dusted on the face over a small amount of Melorose Cream, removing the "shine" upon the skin that makes the best groomed woman look vulgar at night; it gives a delicate and almost transparent velvety appearance to the skin; it does not blow off, and is so fine that it does not show. Has a dainty, flower-like odor, and is tinted perfectly to suit any complexion. Melorose gives universal satisfaction to people who appreciate articles of merit; it does not chafe, scale, burn, or smart the face, and is very soothing to an irritated skin. 50c size, 45c.

Of what is a good complexion, what makes a good complexion, and what keeps a complexion fresh and perfect. They are quickest to detect harmful qualities, and when they endorse a face beautifier their judgment may be accepted as that of experts.
